

My Role & Contribution Summary

Lit up, On Purpose and Thriving

Your Title

Choose a name to describe how you want to be in your work. You could choose an archetype such as The Happy Shaman for example, or something playful and corporate such as Chief Awesomeness Officer. You may want to complete the other sections and then come back to this.

Role Summary

Describe in a few sentences the purpose of this position. What's your inspiring purpose or mission? How do you want to see yourself that's mapped to your mission?

My "Get Tos":

- This is what I get to do that supports my vision and mission. You're playing in the sandbox of time and space as a powerful creator. So, what inspires and feels fulfilling?
- More awesome things I get to be and do.
- and more
- Keep playing from the vantage point of what lights you up and what you get to do in support of that inspiring mission you've identified.
- You may also want to include adjectives that describe your way of being, words like powerful, playful, easily, for example.
- Look to your definition of success to see what you want to weave into your fulfilling work description.
